NOTABLE ARTIST TO EXHIBIT

An exhibition of original paintings by Professor Chang Shu-chi, reputed to be one of China's greatest living painters, will be held at the Roof Garden, Hong Kong Hotel, for three days beginning today.

The exhibition will be open daily from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. On display will be 58 paintings by this eminent Chinese artist, renowned for his reproductions of birds and flowers.

Among his outstanding works is a large silk painting of 100 doves entitled "Messengers of Peace" which was presented to President Franklin D. Roosevelt by Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek.

Professor Chang acquired his art training in China, but he is now fully alive to the artistic influence of the outside world.

Dr. Liu Shih, former Chinese Ambassador to America, commented once that Professor Chang's paintings are a new love of beauty and freedom and by a new courage for experimentation.

Professor Chang returned recently from America where his paintings were widely and favourably commented on by magazine and newspaper including Life Magazine and the San Francisco Chronicle and by Pearl Buck and Lin Yutang.

ORCHESTRAL CONCERT

In addition to their concert of "Popular Music" to be rendered at the Lee Theatre on Tuesday September 7 at 8.30 p.m. the Hong Kong Light Orchestra will give a second concert at the Y.M.C.A. on Wednesday September 8 at 9 p.m.

The orchestra on both occasions will be conducted by William Apps, supported by four soloists, Edna De Carte, pianist, William Ogley, violin, Harry Moody, baritone and Reginald Ardy, soprano.

PEAK RESIDENT FINED

D. J. E. Robertson of 8 The Peak, was fined $50 and ordered to pay $25 compensation to Chan Foon by Mr. F. X. d'Almada at Central yesterday.

Defendant was charged with driving private car No. 3184 without a licence in Pedder Street on August 26.

Robertson was driving the car when a Chinese woman stepped out from behind a parked car and was hit. Her ankle was sprained.

POLICE CONSTABLE ON CHARGE OF BRIBERY

The allegation that Police Constable Chan Yat-fan suggested the payment of $100 to settle the matter of driving without a licence, was made by Veronica Chan before Mr. J. Wicks at Kowloon yesterday.

Chan was continuing her evidence-in-chief in the case in which police constables Denny Yen, Wong Chik-sang, and Chan Yat-fan are being charged in respect of the alleged demand of $100 bribe from her on July 25.

Her evidence, and cross-examination by Mr. J. P. Griffith, defence solicitor for all accused, occupied the whole afternoon session.

GAME A SHEER SWINDLE

When Leung Cheung, 23-year-old unemployed, was charged before Mr. J. Wicks at Kowloon yesterday with keeping a common gaming house, the magistrate asked why the man was not charged with larceny by trick.

Mr. Wicks drew the attention of Sub-Inspector J. I. Evans to a similar case in court some days ago when a man, found conducting a gaming school for the purpose of playing "red and green" was charged with larceny by trick.

Inspector J. Orem informed the court that defendant should have been additionally charged with that offence as the game played was a sheer swindle.

Defendant, with Tam On, Ng Kim, and a 21-year-old married woman, Leung Ping, were arrested by a party of detectives at Clear Water Bay Road on August 25.

Asked by the court whether they knew that they had no possible chance of winning against the bank, the three gamblers replied in the negative. On the instructions of the magistrate, Inspector Orem and 81 Evans demonstrated the trick to the last three accused.

Leung Cheung was sentenced to three months' hard labour and recommended for banishment. The three gamblers were cautioned and discharged. Table money of $40.80 was donated to the Poor Box.

$100 On Dashboard

She went down with him, second defendant and the woman friend to the car where she put a $100 note in the pocket on the dashboard. The driver of the van told her to take it away, whereupon her friend took it and handed it to the second defendant at the back of the van.

She identified the three accused at the identification parade held at Yau-mai on the morning of August 24, said witness, who, in reply to Mr. Griffith's question, said she did not know the three men had been charged before the magistrate and remanded.

In the course of her cross-examination, witness said that she had a learner's licence, and that she was going at a moderate speed when passing the police van.

Told Lies

Witness admitted that when she told the police she had a licence and that the car belonged to her, she was telling lies. Mr. Griffith: Do you realise that it is a serious matter to tell lies to a police officer on duty?

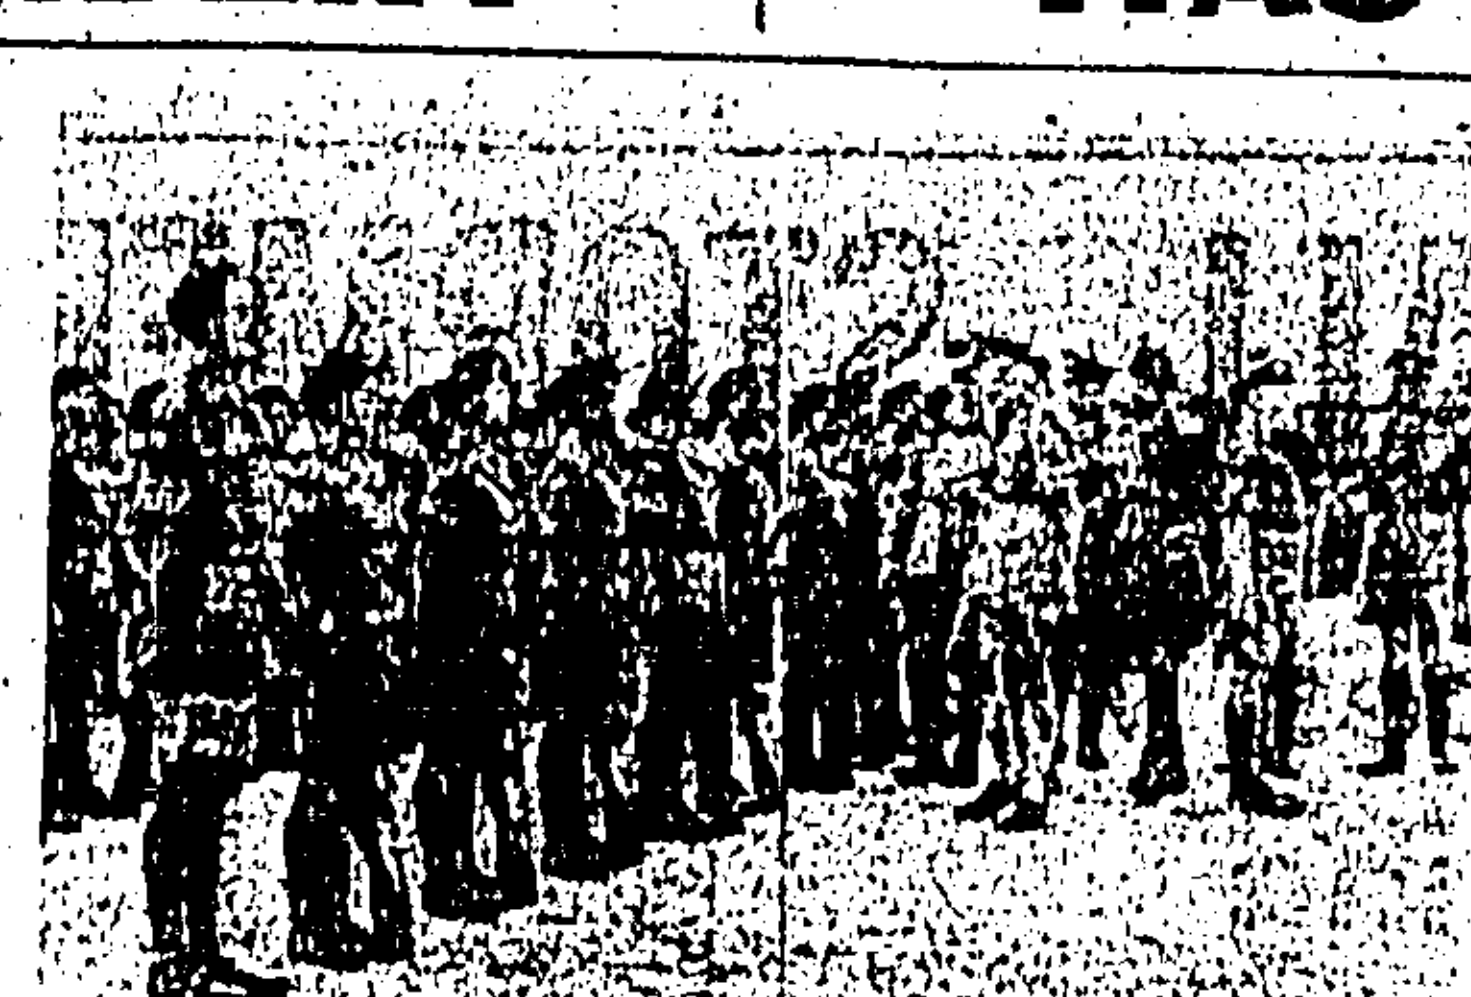

Witness: I do not know if it is serious or not. I did it to avoid trouble.

Asked by defence counsel whether she read the paper about fines for traffic offences, witness said that she did not read court cases but only theatre news.

Witness denied that what she had said about defendants asking for and accepting a bribe was lies, and that the reason for those lies was that she knew first accused had been making inquiries about her driving licence.

Veronica Chan further admitted having been charged with offering a bribe but denied that the charge was withdrawn because she agreed to give evidence in this case.

Further hearing was adjourned for a week.

The G.O.C. snapped while inspecting the Hong Kong Chinese Training Unit yesterday. ("China Mail" photo).

HK Training Unit's Passing Out Parade

"You are now soldiers of the British army and as such you must act with courage and devotion, carrying out the orders you receive with courage and loyalty."

The above message was given by the G.O.C., Major-General F. R. G. Matthews, DSO, to members of the Hong Kong Chinese Training Unit at its second "Passing Out Parade" at Argyle Street yesterday morning.

The unit, 152 strong, under its Commanding Officer, Major J. P. Soper, carried out all the commands of its instructor, Staff Sergeant Smith, smartly and with military precision.

During the inspection of the parade, the G.O.C., accompanied by Brigadier H. A. Skene, DSO, Major Soper, and Captain With, stopped and spoke to the five recruits of the term, through Private Cheung Yan-cheung.

These recruits, Cheng Tsing-hung, Ho Kum-so, Lu Ah-hong, Tsang Sam, and Chiu On-po, were then presented with swaggers and new uniforms by the General. Cheng Tsing-hung also received from the G.O.C. the shield for the best recruit for the second course (May to August).

Addressing the unit, General Matthews said: "I am much gratified with the standard of the turn out and precision of your movements."

Proud Of Them

"I welcome here the headmen of your community to witness your progress and development since you have been here. They should be proud of you, as you are about to join your respective units. I want you to maintain the same standard of discipline and to ensure that in all your work you will not relax the standard of your training."

"You are now soldiers of the British army and as such you must act with courage and devotion, carrying out the orders you receive with courage and loyalty. From now on you will be taught the more difficult and specialised side of your training."

"If you will be a driver, you must remember that a loaded vehicle is more important than a vehicle stranded. The safe arrival of a load is more important than speed."

General Matthews concluded by wishing the men good luck with their respective units.

After taking the salute at the March Past, the G.O.C. talked with Mr. J. Barrow, OBE, District Officer, New Territories, Mr. J. T. Wakenfield (District Officer, South), and Messrs. Koo Tin-nam, BEM, Lei Chung-chong, JP, Chin Pui-tat, Chan Pak-yip, Chan Ping-long, Tsang Kwong-yat, Tong Kai-hei, and Fung For-jun, district elders.

Sports Meeting

A very successful sports meeting was held by the unit in the afternoon at the conclusion of which Major Ballymore distributed the prizes.

Before doing so, Major Ballymore expressed deep satisfaction with the excellent turn out in the morning, and great pleasure at being asked to give away the awards. He congratulated the winners and the losers on their fine display of sportsmanship.

The results were: 100 yards—1st, Chan Ping-kwan; 2nd, Hui Sing-fai. 220 yards—1st, So Wai-po; 2nd, Ng Kam-chung. Putting the shot—1st, Leung Kwong-ki; 2nd, Hui Sing-fai. 440 yards—1st, Chan Ping-kwan; 2nd, Leung Kwong-ki. 880 yards—1st, Ng Kam-chung; 2nd, Chan Kwai-hung.

COMMITTED TO SESSIONS

At Central yesterday Chau Ching, aged 17, was committed by Mr. Hui-shing Lo for trial at the next criminal sessions. Chau was charged with upholding a common gaming house, with money from Chan Siu-sie, manager of the Hop Tai Tullon Shop.

Yesterday's hearing was taken up with formal evidence of arrest and charging. Mr. Macdonald, P.C., acted.

HK WELFARE OFFICE HAS FIRST BIRTHDAY

Hong Kong's Social Welfare Office is one year old today. Yesterday, the Social Welfare Officer, Mr. J. C. McDouall, explained what the Office has achieved in the past 12 months.

Six Welfare Centres, formerly called Free Feeding Centres, have been set up at different parts of the Colony.

At these Centres food is distributed free to destitute mothers and children under 12 years. The Centres include family disputes sections, missing persons bureau, and information desks.

In October 1946, Hong Kong was receiving a daily average of 12,000 destitutes. This number dropped to 2,142 in July last. Mr. McDouall said that Welfare Work at the Centres help the mothers and children to improve their real education, self-respect and their cleanliness.

The Welfare Office does not order people about, added Mr. McDouall. It co-operates to help establish self-respect. He also emphasised that his Office does not control or supervise volunteer social welfare organisations, but merely co-operates.

Self-Government. Referring to the Morrison Hill Relief Camp and the Matauchung Detention Camp, Mr. McDouall pointed to the considerable success of efforts to develop an elementary form of self-government.

At the Matauchung camp, housing destitute mothers and children to fill on 20th century line, a little of the gap caused in Hong Kong by the complete absence of any Poor Law Institute. The main difficulty in obtaining employment for the people is their lack of experience in any work.

L. And E. Holiday

The Department of Immigration and Customs will be closed on Monday, for all purposes, except for entry and clearance of ships' manifests between 9 a.m. and 10 a.m.

The Marine Department will also be closed with the exception of the Port Control Office, Marine Licensing Office and Entry and Clearance Office which will be open from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m.

English Girl Held For Robbery

Washington, August 26. Mrs. Jean Kelyon Lincoln, 26-year-old brunette of Sussex, England, appeared dressed in black here today before a Municipal Court Judge, Almond Scott.

Several times she was on the verge of tears and "clutched" a handkerchief nervously. Judge Scott ordered that Mrs. Lincoln be held for grand jury trial under $10,000 bond on a charge of robbery.

Mrs. Lincoln's American husband, Edward A. Lincoln, of Fort Collins, Colorado, was shot dead by a Washington hotel manager as he tried to rifle the hotel's cash on Tuesday.

Mrs. Lincoln was earlier today reported to have told the police that she started robbing hotels after her husband lost his job as a bulldozer operator. Associated Press.

Bond For Palestine

Miami, Fla., August 25. Four A-20 (Boston) medium bombers which customs officials said were bound for Palestine were seized today.

A Customs agent, Chester Bricker, said the planes are owned by the same crowd which on June 11 exported three B-17s to Palestine by way of Zetel, Czechoslovakia.

He said the planes were flown to Miami recently from Tulsa, Oklahoma and had been camouflaged while undergoing repairs in Miami. They have been detained since August 20 because the owner did not have an export licence and the formal seizure occurred today.

The planes were not held after showing their job was a routine one and that they did not know anything about the destination of the craft. Associated Press.

PRINTERS OUT OF A JOB

Shanghai, August 26. Shanghai's army of jobless has been swollen by 8,000 as a direct result of the introduction of the new currency.

They are workers of the Central Printing Press, which until recently engaged in turning out Chinese dollar notes on a round-the-clock schedule.

With the advent of the new yuan, workers out of the job have been notified of the suspension of their services. It is understood that a delegation of workers has petitioned the Bureau of Social Affairs to inquire the management not to acquire them, but to let them print bills and stamps.

RACE DRIVER CAUTIONED

Norman Gamble, 31, RASC driver, was cautioned by Mr. J. C. McDouall at Central yesterday for failing to report an accident.

Gamble pleaded not guilty to a charge of driving without due care and attention. No evidence was called and he was discharged.

Formal evidence of arrest and charging. Mr. Macdonald, P.C., acted.

KOWLOON ROTARY CEREMONY

Yesterday was red letter day for the Kowloon Rotary Club when in the presence of a large gathering its charter was formally installed.

The charter was issued by Rotary International on June 28, and was brought back to Hong Kong by Dr. Li Shu-fan, past district governor of district No. 98. Dr. Li yesterday formally presented the charter to President F. C. Clemo of the Kowloon Rotary Club.

This day was also made the occasion for the induction of three honorary members and eight new members. It was the first induction of new members since the Club was officially admitted to Rotary International.

The three honorary members were: Brigadier H. A. Skene, Officer Commanding Land Forces, Hong Kong; Mr. K. A. Blomfield, Superintendent of Police; and Group Captain J. N. Jefferson of the Royal Air Force.

The eight new Rotarians inducted yesterday were: Captain W. J. Moore, Dr. R. D. Scriven, Dr. Daniel Y. H. Wong and Messrs. J. J. Cameron, L. A. Easterbrook, O. F. Hamilton, William C. Kelley and A. J. Barnard.

The induction ceremony was witnessed by a large contingent of Hong Kong Rotarians headed by its President, Mr. D. S. Hill, who congratulated the Kowloon counterpart on the auspicious occasion and handed him a flag of Hong Kong Rotary.

Other Hong Kong Rotarians were: Dr. Li Shu-fan, Dr. F. T. Tseung, Dr. L. A. K. K. and Dr. C. C. K. K. and Messrs. H. A. Cameron, W. M. Portridge, N. J. Djang, John Yuen, E. J. K. Clemo.

HONG KONG ANTI-TUBERCULOSIS ASSOCIATION EXTRAORDINARY GENERAL MEETING

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that an Extraordinary General Meeting of all Ordinary and Life Members of the Association will be held at the Y.M.C.A. Down Town Centre, 4th floor, Rutton Building, Dudley Street on Thursday, the 16th day of September, 1948 at 5.30 p.m. for the purpose of considering and if approved of passing the following Resolutions:—

(a) That the body hitherto known and referred to in the Constitution of the Association as the "Executive Committee" shall henceforth be known as the "Board of Directors of the Hong Kong Anti-Tuberculosis Association" and that each Member of the Executive Committee at the date hereof be and become a member of the said Board of Directors and that the powers and duties hitherto vested in the Executive Committee be exercised by the said Board of Directors.

(b) That the words "Board of Directors" and "Director" be substituted for the words "Executive Committee" and "Member of the Executive Committee" respectively whenever the latter occur in the Constitution.

That this Meeting approve the incorporation of the Board of Directors (or in the event of Resolution No. 1 not being passed of the Executive Committee) for the time being of the Association and that for such purpose a Bill in the form of a draft produced to this Meeting be presented to the Legislative Council.

Dated the 27th day of August, 1948.

Ed. Y. HENSON, Acting Chairman, Executive Committee.

HOLD-UP IS REPEATABLE

THERE are two main purposes for which the hold-up play is used. One is to produce late enough communication between the two hands of your own side. The other is to cut off late communication between the two hands of your opponents. On some deals it is advisable to use repeated hold-ups in two of more suits, with the idea of thus forcing a number of late tricks which would outnumber the earlier tricks you might take.

KOSENKINA'S OWN STORY

Jumped To Escape Not To Commit Suicide

How Panyushkin Came Into Picture

New York, August 25.

In her first interview with the press from her bed in the Roosevelt Hospital here, Mrs. Kosenkina told reporters today that she jumped from a third story window of the Russian Consulate in New York because she wanted to escape.

"I jumped to escape, not to kill myself," she said. The 52-year old Russian school teacher added that she did not want to go back to Russia.

She said that the Soviet Ambassador, M. Alexander Panyushkin, and the Consul General, M. Jacob Lomakin, "both told me what to say to reporters" at a press conference held in the Russian consulate on the day she was taken there from a White Russian refugee farm.

They told her, she said, that "through my message I would become a heroine."

Mrs. Kosenkina said that when she returned to the Soviet consulate from the refugee farm "I knew that since they did not permit me to leave the consulate I would not be able to escape in Russian either."

In reply to a question what was in the letter she sent to M. Lomakin from Reed Farm, she said she told the entire story of her life in Russia. She said that she had also told M. Lomakin the story of her son and her husband.

Enemy Of State
Mrs. Kosenkina's answer, as paraphrased by an interpreter, said that the Russians considered her a "true" teacher, even though her husband was destroyed. She said that they believed her knowledge as a teacher would be useful to the Soviet Union.

She added, however, that the Russians called her an "enemy of the State" and she was "persecuted in many small ways."

Mrs. Kosenkina said that in her letter she had asked to be released from her teaching assignment, and to move to a hotel. She said that she wanted to talk to the Russians "as a human being," but they would not permit her and "perfunctorily arrested me."

HK Police Constable Still Held
Canton, August 26.
Police Constable Chu Fang of the Hong Kong Police Force who was arrested in Shumchun, Chinese border town, in connection with the shooting of a banished in British territory, was handed over by Canton Pacification Headquarters to the law court for trial for manslaughter.

The Chinese position was that the banished died in Chinese territory where the policeman when he claimed custody of the wounded man.

Previously, Mr. Duncan W. MacIntosh, Commissioner of Police in Hong Kong, and Mr. B. B. Heathcote-Smith, political adviser to the Hong Kong government, had visited Canton, to secure the release of P. C. Chu Fang.—Associated Press.

Mackenzie King's Retirement

Ottawa, August 25.
Mr. Mackenzie King, the Canadian Premier, announced today he would retire shortly after he returns in October from the Prime Ministers' conference in London.

He said he had agreed to attend the conference at the request of his successor, Louis St. Laurent, Canada's External Affairs Minister.

Mr. King said he had advised the Canadian Ambassadors in Rome and Athens that he would be unable to accept invitations to visit Italy and Greece.—Associated Press.

Intellectuals For Peace

Warsaw, August 25.
The "Cultural Congress of Intellectuals for Peace" opened in Wrocław today with 600 delegates from 45 nations.

M. Maurice Bedell of France, in one of the opening speeches, declared that the congress was designed "not for the exchange of opinion, but to undertake action for the preservation of peace."

Five congress presidents were elected including Mr. Julian Huxley of Great Britain, Mrs. Irene Curle of France, Mr. Anderson Mexico, Danish writer, and an Italian painter, Signor Guttuso.—United Press.

Student Agitation In Prague

Prague, August 25.
A group of Yugoslav students in Prague today called on their fellow Yugoslav students to rise against Marshal Tito's "imperialist policy."

In a resolution printed in today's Rude Pravo, the students also sharply protested the shooting of the Yugoslav General Arso Jovanovitch.

"We call on all Communist as well as non-Communist students in our universities to rise against the policy which aims at making an imperialist colony out of our land," the resolution said.

"The bloody crime perpetrated by the Tito-Kardelj-Rankovic-Djilas clique on General Jovanovitch, is proof to us how far treason can lead the despotic clique which is now strangling our country."

They added that they fully agreed with the Cominform denunciation of Marshal Tito.—United Press.

US BOYCOTT OF BRITISH FILMS: RETALIATION CHARGE

London, August 25.

Don Iddon, Daily Mail columnist writing from New York, said in a front-page story today that Morris Helprin, Vice-President of London Film Productions, charged that American

STALIN MAKES A MOVE TOWARDS PEACE

Berlin Conference To Settle Currency Problem Suggested

Recognition Of Four Power Rights In City

London, August 25. An informed diplomatic source said today that Stalin has proposed a Berlin conference of Big Four financial experts to work out agreement on the control of the city's currency.

German Reds Still At It

Berlin, August 25. Germany's top Communists called on the Western Allies today to leave Berlin. They charged the United States with post-war ruin of Germany just as the "useless air attacks" wrecked her during the war.

In a Berlin speech to 3,000 representatives of the Soviet-sponsored Socialist Unity party, Wilhelm Pieck, party leader, accused Americans of wanting to saddle Germany with years of military occupation.

He also charged that the U.S. wanted to convert the Ruhr into a new munitions spring board for attack against Russia.

Pieck's speech was reported by the Soviet-licensed German News Agency, ADN.—Associated Press.

The United States, Britain and France, the source said, were considering the suggestion in talks this week and their envoys in Moscow have recommended acceptance.

Such a proposal could mean that Russia has agreed in principle to Western demands for a share in administering the German capital's economy.

It also could mean that Russia recognizes the Western powers' right to continue occupying Berlin—a right Moscow has challenged since the decision to set up a West German Government was taken.

The informant, who follows the East-West negotiations in Moscow from official reports, would not permit himself to be identified even by nationality. By four-power accord the Moscow talks are being conducted in secret, at least officially.

Stalin made the proposal at Monday night's nearly five hour long Kremlin conference, the source said.

The informant did not say whether the Russian leader's idea—which he described as a "new one"—was qualified by any conditions.

Stockbroker Fails In London

London, August 25. For the first time in many years today, a member of the London Stock Exchange announced himself to be on the rocks.

At the close of trading, it was announced that Mr. Charles Ernest Simpkins, trading as Simpkins, had begged "to inform the house he can no longer comply with his bargain."—United Press.

DUTCH COUP IN BATAVIA

Batavia, August 25. Dutch authorities seized the Indonesian Republic's hospital in Batavia today.

After last year's "police action," the Dutch took over all Republican facilities in Batavia except the Central Hospital.

A Dutch effort to bring the hospital under Netherlands administration failed last September. Because of hostility of hospital personnel, a compromise was reached and only part of the hospital was taken over by the Dutch.

The Dutch Information service said that as of today the hospital is completely under Dutch control.—Associated Press.

DUTCH CANNOT SEE THE DIFFERENCE

The Hague, August 25. Netherlands officials at the Hague are astonished at the attitude of Americans officials who said that whereas troubles in Malaya are Communist-inspired they are of a Nationalist nature in Indonesia and the Philippines.

The statement is reported to have been made by American officials in connection with providing armament for the suppression of disorders in Malaya. "The Netherlands action in Indonesia is exclusively directed against elements of destruction and disorder which for the greater part are inspired by Communism," a Government spokesman said.

"We therefore cannot see the difference between the situation in Malaya and Indonesia. There is no action by the Dutch in those parts of Indonesia where the truce is effective."

Informal sources said today that acting Governor General, Dr. Hubertus Van Mook, chief maker of Dutch policy in Indonesia, might be replaced soon by former Premier Doctor Louis J. M. Beel.

There was some difference in these quarters as to the imminence of the replacement. One source said that Lambertus Neher, crown delegate in Indonesia, had arrived in Batavia from the Hague last week "to break the news to Van Mook" that he would be out immediately after the formation of an Indonesian interim Government expected to be installed this autumn.

Another informant, however, said "it will depend on Van Mook." Thus he implied that Van Mook would be confronted with the conditions for continuing to hold the office which he has filled since the end of the war.—Associated Press.

She questioned the view that the murder had no political significance.

Mrs. Becker said her husband wrote to her a week ago about "Communist intentions" in Malaya and about a "Russian scheme" to weaken the colonial powers by stirring up insurrections.

She added that her husband believed that this policy would not affect Singapore for some time.—Reuter.

Philippine Floods

Manila, August 25. Twenty-five Central Luzon towns—in Bulacan and Pampanga—were today reported flooded due to the overflowing of the Pampanga and Angat Rivers after continuous rains.

Many roads in the two provinces are impassable and large areas of rice land inundated. Damage estimated at millions of pesos to agriculture and public works.

At least one bridge buckled down due to the floods, causing two deaths when a passenger bus plunged down.

The Agno River in Pangasinan to the North West of Pampanga, also overflowed, causing heavy public works damage.

The Red Cross is assisting flood sufferers.—United Press.

ANOTHER BERLIN PEACE GESTURE

Berlin, August 25. American and Russian officials in Berlin were today working on a plan to withdraw their police from Sector boundaries to avoid clashes. The final Russian decision on the plan was promised within 24 hours.

This new move to bring peace to the scene of recent "frontier" incidents is the outcome of negotiations begun four days ago when a Russian public safety officer suggested leaving the fight against black bar-keteers on the border to German police.

The discussions were disclosed by a high-ranking American official 12 hours after Russian soldiers shot and seriously wounded a German in a lorry near Bukow, on the border between the Russian Zone proper and the American Sector of Berlin.

The German was taken to the Neukölln Hospital in the American Sector and was today "out of danger."

Ruling Rejected
Col. Frank Howley, American Commandant in Berlin, today rejected a ruling of the Russian Commander, General Kotikov, that orders of the Berlin City Council were invalid unless approved by the Soviet authorities.

Col. Howley told reporters, according to the German News Agency, that the American Sector would remain entirely unaffected, and decisions reached by the City Council members would remain in force.

General E.O. Herbert, British Commandant of Berlin, tonight blamed "Soviet unilateral action" for recent measures which impaired the unified administration of the city.

Monty Visit
The British authorities could not accept General Kotikov's claim that orders issued by the Berlin City authorities were unlawful since they had not been submitted to the Russians. General Herbert said.

General Sir Brian Robertson and General Lucius D. Clay, the British and American military Governors in Germany, have postponed their planned visit to the Ruhr on Thursday and Friday because of pressure of work.

Meanwhile, it was announced that Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery, Chief of the Imperial General Staff, will fly to the British Zone of Germany on Friday. He will not visit Berlin. During his visit, Field Marshal Montgomery will be the guest of Lieut. Gen. Sir Charles F. Keightley, Commander of the British Army of the Rhine.—Reuter.

"Temporary" Leave In S'hai Case

Shanghai, August 25. The local District Court granted "temporary leave" from China to two French seamen detained here for the past few weeks on suspicion of having been involved in an alleged smuggling case aboard the French liner, Andre Leduc, recently.

Hearing of the case was resumed today following the receipt of what is described as an official document from the local French Consulate General, reporting the arrest of "two self-confessed smugglers in Marseilles" who are said to have declared that the two detained seamen in Shanghai had nothing to do with the affair.

In adjourning the hearing, the President Judge asked the local French authorities to keep the court here informed on the outcome of the trial of the two accused in Marseilles.—Reuter.

ARGENTINE QUAKE

Buenos Aires, August 25. The first reports stated that three were killed in the city of Salta, where telephonic communications were interrupted.

A slight tremor was felt simultaneously in Buenos Aires.—Reuter.

CONSULATE CLOSURES

NOT MUCH OF A LOSS SAYS MARSHALL

Washington, August 25. Mr. George Marshall, the Secretary of State, announced today that his Government accepted the Russian decision to close the American consulate in Vladivostok, and added: "It's not much of a loss."

The movements of the American consul there were "so circumscribed as to make his activities of little value," he added.

Mr. Marshall said the Russian action was "not entirely unexpected" by the State Department, and summed up the whole business as "a regrettable though not a very serious smelter."

He pointed out that the Soviet Government would keep its business and commercial organization—AMTORG—running in New York. Both in the Russian Embassy in Washington and the American Embassy in Moscow, consulates would presumably be continued to take care of essential business, he said.

"The Soviet Vice-Consul in New York, M. Chupurnukh, said, however, that no official order to close the consulate had yet been received from his Government. He assumed that the order would first go to the Soviet Embassy in Washington.

"For Good"
The Soviet Consul-General in San Francisco, M. Konstantin A. Efremov, said that he was "awaiting clearance" for closing the consulate there.

It was reported from New York that M. Chupurnukh left the Soviet consulate today and told reporters that he was leaving "for good." He said that he was on his way to La Guardia Airport.

Well informed diplomatic quarters here and in Moscow said today that the closing of the consulate in the Soviet Union and the United States is not expected to have any effect on the current Moscow talks.

The present talks on Germany are going on independently and on their own merits, it was learned. The case of Mrs. Kosenkina and another Soviet teacher in the United States, M. Samarin, has not featured in the Kremlin talks.

Truman Cancels Credentials

The closing of the consulates, however, is regarded as reflecting the growing uneasiness in the relations between the United States and the Soviet Union.

President Truman today cancelled the credentials of the Soviet Consul General in New York.

Mr. Truman's action was announced by the Presidential Press Secretary, Mr. Charles Ross, as the White House yacht, Williamsburg, docked at the Navy depot near Yorktown, Virginia.

Mr. Ross said that the President signed on board the Williamsburg last night the formal revocation of the "exequatur" issued to M. Konstantin. He said it was being done back to Washington this afternoon.

Mr. Ross said that he had no comments on the Russian order to close their New York and San Francisco consulates.—Reuter.

SHREWD MOVE BY NIZAM

Hyderabad, August 25.—The Nizam today ordered 1,000,000 rupees sent to Transjordan for the relief of Arab refugees from Palestine.

The world's wealthiest ruler gave the money in response to a cable appeal from King Abdullah of Transjordan.

"The Nizam's cable reply said, 'Distressed to learn of refugees and plight and trust conditions in Palestine will soon enable them to return to their homes.'

"The Nizam, in a politically shrewd move, requested the Indian Government to send the relief money from his blocked Indian accounts which recently were frozen as part of the Indian campaign to force Hyderabad to accede to India.—United Press.

GUERRILLA RAIDS MENACE IN GREECE

Athens, August 25. The Military Command staged a "practice" alert today as guerrilla raids, sabotage and abductions continued throughout Greece.

The Americans are rushing completion of the evacuation of their families from outlying small and relatively unprotected provincial cities of Athens and Salonika. Mostly they said it was "because of living conditions."

The principal spots where General Markos' men are causing trouble are in the southern Roumelian mountains, North West of Athens. This area was cleaned out last spring by an Army offensive.

Another trouble spot is in the plains of Thessaly where the remnants of the liquidated Grammos mountain guerrilla groups—1,000 strong—are terrorizing isolated villages.

Strong guerrilla outbreaks which followed sharply behind the end of the Grammos offensive, put a stop, at least temporarily, to American road and rail construction in the Roumelian and Thessaly areas.

A court martial at Larissa today sentenced eight persons to death and two others to life imprisonment on charges of being Communists.

In Washington, Secretary of State George Marshall said today that final victory over the Greek guerrillas is much nearer as a result of the successful Grammos Mountain campaign.—United Press.

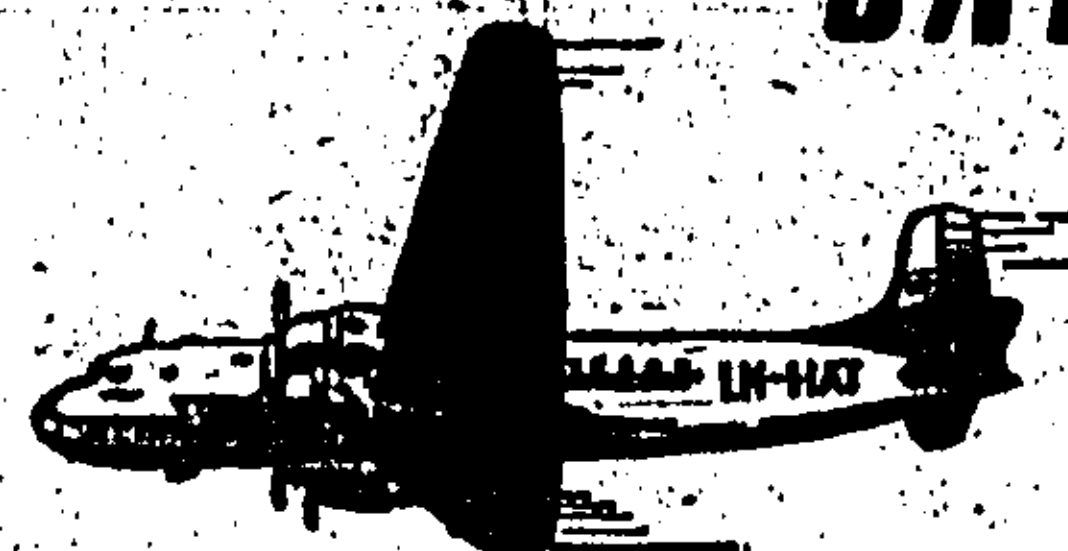

A SMUGGLER'S RUSE

Manila, August 25. The Customs authorities are investigating two black girls which occurred recently at Manila International airport, due to suspicion that they were engineers by accomplices of jewel smugglers from Bangkok.

The authorities said in both instances the girls went out without plane passengers from Bangkok were about to be searched.

A secret service official said the first black-out, which occurred on August 14, lasted two hours. In both instances, no undeclared guns were found.—United Press.

(King's)

Stars: Louis Hayward, Janet Blair.

Story: By this time Robert Louis Stevenson must be wearing quite a cranny for himself as he rotates rapidly "under a wide and starry sky." The several novels of his which Hollywood has taken, adapted, re-written and changed completely have been, practically without exception, dismal flops. Although there is no proof that they would have responded in their original form to decent and respectful treatment, the net result of the previous Stevenson parodies is to persuade one that they would.

"The Hucksters"

GABLE AND THE GORGEOUS WIDOW: Clark Gable plays Vic Norman in the M-G-M version of Frederic Wakeman's novel. Deborah Kerr is Mrs. Kay Dorrance.

That left to themselves, in fact, they might even have reached "A" (adult) classification.

"The Black Arrow" is the latest of the R.L.S. tales of adventure to sweep across the screen. Hollywood's "Black Arrow" story is, briefly: Sir Richard Shelton (Hayward), after his return from the Wars of the Roses, finds his uncle, Sir Daniel (George Macready), in his late father's castle. His uncle is now the legal guardian of Janet Blair (pardon, Joanna Sedley), whose father, rumour has it, murdered Sir Richard's sire. Rumour was a lying jade even then, for Sir Daniel did the dirty deed. It takes Joanna, her outlawed father, and Sir Richard a long time to triumph, right and the box office being it off eventually. (Columbia).

"ESCAPE ME NEVER"

(Queen's)

Stars: Errol Flynn, Ida Lupino, Eleanor Parker.

Story: Love is the damdest thing. Fenella (Eleanor Parker) is a wealthy English girl staying in Venice with her parents. She loves a struggling musician, Caryl (Gig Young), who will not live on her money. Going off on a huff to the Alps, she is hotly pursued by Caryl's composer brother, Sebastian (Errol), who only wants to straighten things out. Unfortunately Fenella finds him more attractive than Caryl, and Gemma (Ida Lupino), who loves Sebastian, is at her wits' end.

So, by this time, is everybody else. However, the story continues in London, where Sebastian's ballet is being produced. After great difficulties, including the petty domestic incident of their Alling Child,

"The Black Arrow"

ESCAPE FROM THE CASTLE: Louis Hayward and Janet Blair in a tense moment from "The Black Arrow." (Columbia)

Gemma and Sebastian are reunited.

Ida Lupino always looks so grim. One cannot help feeling that even in her most passionate moments she would rather be a gangster's cutie than a faithful follower in Flynn's footsteps.

Perhaps she would. (Warner Bros.)

"JUNGLE GIRL" (Central)

Stars: Frances Gifford, Tom Neal.

Story: Edgar Rice Burroughs wrote the original "Jungle Girl" story. This ensures a plenty of tigers, lions, giant apes, trailing vines, and a lot of jungle. His book has been adapted into a 15-episode serial, now re-released.

Leaving out the tense bits, the story vaguely concerns a doctor who lives in Darkest Africa with his daughter. He is murdered by his twin brother, who is after the diamonds in them that hills.

The brother takes his dead twin's place without being recognised. He is foiled by the jungle prowess of Nyoka, his niece, who has much power over the local beasts. (Republic).

"THE HUCKSTERS" (Queen's)

Stars: Clark Gable, Deborah Kerr.

Story: This is the first Hollywood film of English actress Deborah Kerr, for whom Hollywood paid a high dollar price. It is also based on a best-selling novel.

The combination, as always, has proved irresistible to Hollywood EXECS. Without ruining poor

Deborah forever, they have succeeded in removing her bloom. Without making a complete hash of a hard-punching satire, they have removed the knuckle-dusters.

The story is about "huckster" advertising men, who are willing to do anything and nearly everything to sell their accounts. Vic Norman (the Gable) is out to sell Beattie Soap for his boss, Kimberly (Adolphe Menjou), and Kimberly is a yes-man for the mighty Evans (Sydney Greenstreet) the owner of the soap mill. He manages to get the contract, with the help of diversions Deborah and Ava Gardner, and then turns it down for Lerv.

The post-war Gable has never been the same man as the one that went away. Big ears, toothbrush mustache, leer and all, he is a sadly inferior being to the Great Gable of yesteryear. There remains Charm, the smooth, well-tailored charm he knows so well. (M.G.M.)

"THE BISHOP'S WIFE" (King's)

Stars: Cary Grant, Loretta Young, David Niven.

Story: A bishop, no less than any other man, who concentrates on raising funds for a new cathedral instead of on his wife, is heading for trouble.

This bishop struck the trouble, but, being a bishop, he prayed for guidance. And so there came one Dudley. Dudley had sleek hair, heavy brows and a cleft chin, and the wife of the bishop, being both woman and Loretta Young, did fall for this Dudley.

Dudley caused many miracles to occur in the household of the bishop, bringing joy to many people, but alas, not to the bishop. The bishop was consumed by an awful jealousy—in fact, the bishop was sour on Dudley.

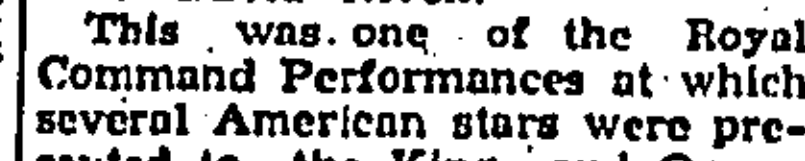

But all was for the best, for as the clock struck 12 Dudley disappeared, never to return, and so there was almost peace in the household of the noble bishop.

One thing that must be seen to be believed is Cary Grant as a Guiding Spirit. One's sympathies are all for the Bishop in the case—David Niven.

This was one of the Royal Command Performances at which several American stars were presented to the King and Queen. (RKO Radio)

"THE BISHOP'S WIFE"

A FANTASY of a fallen angel, a bewildered bishop, and the bishop's beautiful wife (Cary Grant, David Niven and Loretta Young, respectively) the film also has Elsa Lanchester and Monty Woolley for good fun measure. (RKO Radio)

BURMA CLAIMS SUCCESS

Rangoon, August 25.

The Government said today that Communist-led rebels were in full flight from the Tharrawaddy district in mid-western Burma.

Loyal troops, who split the rebels into two groups were reported in pursuit.

The Government said the rebels were attempting to escape to the Arakan on the West and Toungoo in Central Burma.

The communists detailed six Government successes, including the killing of six well-known Communist leaders and capture of another.

The Burma Navy went into action in the Irrawaddy Delta area tonight while, at the same time, Government forces intensified their offensive against the rebels in Central Burma.

Disclosing this, an official communiqué said naval patrol boats had shelled an insurgent-held village near the rice-exporting port of Bassein, 60 miles west of Rangoon.

The communiqué reported a "bloody encounter" at Kyawpwe, a small town in the Toungoo district, about midway between Rangoon and the temple city of Mandalay.

The recapture of Proma, further to the north, is regarded as one of the Government's immediate objectives, and it was learned unofficially today that Government forces were steadily pushing towards that town.

Reports reaching here said the Government's offensive in the Delta area of southern Burma has been bogged down by the depressing monsoon rains, and in several thrusts at insurgent "hubs" of resistance, troops had to wade knee-deep through muddy-paddy fields.

The Burma Government Gazette, tonight published the rules which will govern the country's first elections as an independent nation. Voting will be in April next year. Buddhist monks and other clergymen are barred from voting or standing as candidates.—Reuter.

TITO ATTACKS RUMANIA

Note Handed To Ambassador In Belgrade

Campaign Against Yugoslavia

London, August 25.
Yugoslavia late today accused Foreign Minister And Parker and other Rumanian officials of trying to bring about the overthrow of the Yugoslav Government.

A Belgrade broadcast by the Yugoslav news agency
Tanjug monitored in London by teleradio said the accusation was made in a note handed the Rumanian Ambassador in Belgrade by the Yugoslav Foreign Minister, Stanoje Simic.

"Responsible state officials of Rumania in their speeches and articles in the press call upon the citizens of the Federated Peoples' Republic of Yugoslavia to revolt and overthrow the legal government of the Federated Peoples' Republic of Yugoslavia.

"Thus, for example, Mine Ana Parker, Foreign Minister of Rumania, openly calls for the elimination of the present state leadership in Yugoslavia.

The broadcast quoted the note as saying that "responsible state functionaries" and the press and radio of Rumania have of recent months been attempting to depict Yugoslavia before the Rumanian people as being a country which has supposedly separated itself from the anti-imperialist front."

It said Yugoslavia has been pictured as a nation "supposedly degenerating into a bourgeois state, in which there allegedly is no Democratic order and in which anti-Soviet propaganda is being conducted."

"Impermissible"

Tanjug said the note continued that these statements "are being corroborated by such dishonour-able methods of spreading untruths as, for example, the allegation in the paper Rumania Libera of July 28 this year that Yugoslavia is concluding a financial agreement with the American Secretary of State, Mr.
George Marshall."

Tanjug said the note declared this all added up to a campaign against Yugoslavia, and her people which contradicted the Yugoslav-Rumanian treaty of friendship, co-operation and mutual aid.

It said such actions are "impermissible even from the point of view of customary international relations to say nothing of normal good relations between neighbours."

The note accused Rumanian officials of suppressing news of the "actual foreign policy of Yugoslavia" for fear the Rumanian people "would doubt the

"Gross Insults"

It complained that the Rumanian press and radio did not publish even one excerpt from the speeches of the chief of the Yugoslav delegation, at the recent Danube conference while giving wide publicity to those from other "Democratic countries."

On the other hand, it said, the press and radio officials of Rumania have addressed "gross insults" and "most shameful expressions" to Tito and the majority of the Yugoslav people.

The note said Yugoslavia "most energetically protests against this monstrous anti-Yugoslav campaign."

"Such hostile outrages against Yugoslavia, the Yugoslav people and the Government of Yugoslavia," it said "serve only to weaken amicable relations between Yugoslavia as well as the democratic front in general."

Jews ALLEGE

REIGN OF TERROR IN EGYPT

Geneva, August 25.
The World Jewish Congress protested today against a decision of the United Nations Economic and Social Council to postpone consideration of what the Congress called a "reign of terror" in Egypt against Jewish residents.

The present session of the United Nations Council postponed a Congress request that a special Council Committee investigate and report on reported attacks on Jews in Syria, Lebanon, Aden, Bahrain island and Egypt. The subject may not be dealt with until the next session of the Council in February.

Violence Victims

The Congress said in a statement today that with the continuance and sometimes the approval of the Government, the Jews in Egypt have been the victims of a series of acts of violence and persecution by legal and economic discrimination.
"Hundreds of Jews have been murdered and injured in mob attacks and there have been mass arrests and imprisonment of Jews in concentration camps without charge or trial."
The Congress charged that be-

PERSIA OIL RIGHTS

Tehran, August 25.
The Persian Government is to appoint three European oil experts to advise on Persian rights concerning the Anglo-Iranian Oil Company and on judicial, technical and economic problems.

A Government Bill appointing the appointments was approved by the Majlis today. The experts may be French, Belgian, Dutch, Swiss or Swedish subjects.
Today's decision follows a Parliamentary debate yesterday on the Anglo-Iranian Oil Company and the Bahrain Islands.
The court of which the Persian Foreign Minister, Nouri Es Fanslari, said that the Government considered null and void all past and future agreements between the islands and their oil.

TASMANIAN ELECTION

Hobart, August 25.
The Tasmanian Labour Party is expected to take office again following last week's general election. The incomplete election results, however, left some doubt whether the party will have a majority of two in the Legislative Assembly. The Lower House, and under the disolution of will hold only half of the seats.
The election arose from the return of the Legislative Council, the Upper House, which has only one Labour member, its electing Bill last month. Reuter.

Curi- osity Of Love

Sardinia, August 25.
Antonio Zuckoni, 20, and Maria Stangoni, both 18, had a secret rendezvous in a lumber yard near here yesterday.

Maria came, smiling and kissed Antonio.
He showed her a curious gadget he had found while awaiting her. He gave it another flip.

The gadget exploded and

Pakistan Trade With Japan

Karachi, August 25.
The leader of Pakistan's trade delegation to Japan, Ahmad Ispahani, and two other members of the delegation who are flying to Tokyo on September 13, met officials of the Ministry of Commerce today.

They were officially informed of Pakistan's exact capacity to supply raw cotton, skins, hides and other raw materials in exchange for capital equipment and essential supplies from Japan.

It is stated that a number of Pakistan businessmen will be visiting Japan during the delegation's stay in that country. One member of the delegation is Abdul Chaudhry, Director General of Supplies and Development.

PLANE MURDER TRIAL

Istanbul, August 25.
The murder trial began today of seven Bulgarians accused of killing a Bulgarian pilot and radio operator.
The murder was alleged to have been committed in a Sofia to Varna transport plane on June 15, when the remainder of the crew were forced to land the plane at Istanbul.
The Bulgarians throw themselves at the mercy of the Turks
as political refugees.
Beginning the trial, the prosecutor charged that a retired Colonel, C. Mihailov, shot the pilot and he said the others were accomplices.

Beginning his own defence, Mihailov said he wanted to tell the background to the story, but the Judge ordered him to tell only about the shooting, whereupon Mihailov said he had important information of a secret nature and asked for a secret Court session.
The Judge agreed to this expelling, among others, the Bulgarian Consul who had previously—along with the Bulgarian Ambassador—sharply requested that all defendants be turned over to the Bulgarian government.
The request was refused.

Huks, Guns Captured

Manila, August 25.
A report from Manila in Central Luzon today said that three Constabulary companies captured a total of 23 Huks, guns and 24 pieces of arms in two engagements, at Floridablanca in Pampanga and along the Pam-panga-Bataan provincial boundary.

The report said the information came from the Central Luzon Zone of Command of the Constabulary.—United Press.

ENCEPHALITIS TOLL IN JAPAN

Tokyo, August 25.
Japan's sleeping sickness epidemic claimed 500 lives and sickened 2,600 persons throughout the nation, the Welfare Ministry reported today.
While the daily increase in cases fell in Tokyo yesterday, nationwide records showed an addition of 359 new cases. Tokyo has been the centre of the epidemic, with 1,095 cases.—

LENIN PROPHECY: LONDON VIEW OF MALAYAN DEVELOPMENTS

London Stock Exchange

London, August 25.

Price changes showed quiet firmness in the London Stock Exchange today.

The main topic of conversation was the closing by Russia of her consulates in the United States. This is considered in some Stock Exchange quarters to be a bear point, but share prices were not depressed.

NY SILVER MARKET

New York, August 25.

There were routine dealings in the silver market at unchanged prices. Tenders and consumer purchases were about 225,000 ounces.

Mexican coinage requirements will therefore be about 450,000 ounces monthly as compared to the former 300,000.

Because of the recent establishment of a free exchange market in Mexico, the melting down of Mexican one peso coins was remunerative and the Mexican Government stopped minting this coin. The five peso silver coin on the other hand cannot be melted down profitably until the exchange rate drops to eight pesos per United States dollar or 12.50 cents per peso.

The Mexican peso is currently quoted at around 14.75 cents per peso. —Reuter.

Washington, August 25.

A Justice Department spokesman said today that the case of Axis Sally will be put before the Federal Grand Jury in about 10 days. —United Press.

London, August 25.

Developments in South East Asia have given rise in London to the question of whether the fighting war which Lenin envisioned as the inevitable climax of Communist world revolution may not have begun already.

The British are convinced that they are fighting in Malaya and to some degree the French are fighting in Indochina a concerted military effort by Communists.

Thus actual insurrection, rather than the infiltration tactics used in Europe, seems to be the weapon adopted by something which looks like a Far Eastern Cominform.

British officials say they do not know whether this organisation was formed at a meeting in Calcutta last year or whether it was formed previously, perhaps at a conference in Manchuria under Moscow auspices. But intelligence reports indicate clearly that all the disorder throughout South East Asia is being carried out under a unified command implementing the Calcutta decisions.

Much of the activity has been traced to Chinese Communists working among Chinese immigrants to South East Asia who have always been an irritating element among the Malays.

There are 1,800,000 of these Chinese in Malaya and if the population of Singapore is included they outnumber Malaya's 2,136,000 native Malays.

Outside Force

But of this number only a tiny minority are involved in the current uprising—perhaps about 5,000. They are described here as largely the remnants of Chinese Communist forces which look to the hills to obstruct the Japanese during the war plus a certain number of professional bandits.

Victor Purcell, one of Britain's chief experts on the area, says that "to the observer at a distance the scale and intensity of the present operations suggest that the Communist direction (during the war) were not wasting their forces against the Japanese but reserving their for use against their then allies."

He added that "it also suggests the intervention of some more efficient and determined force from the outside."

Over By October?

So far, Britain and France have been facing their problems individually. France is reported to have some 200,000 men in Indochina. That is a major portion of her entire army and the

US BASEBALL

CLEVELAND BACK IN THE LEAD

New York, August 25.
Cleveland Indians started out in high gear today and wound up again in first place.

They grabbed six runs in the first three innings to beat Boston Red Sox 9-0 behind Bob Lemon's four-hit pitching. Indians' losing streak thus was halted at four games as a gloom-gripped crowd of 30,745 watched young Lemon mow down Boston sluggers.

Indians, blasted out six hits, including a double by Lemon in the second inning for four runs. Boudreau hit a homer in the sixth and Bobby in the eighth. Philadelphia Athletics, lost their fifth straight, dropping a 10-4 decision to Detroit Tigers. New York Yankees went to an 8-2 triumph over Chicago White Sox with rookie Bob Porterfield pitching to win his third game in the majors.

Brooklyn Dodgers won, 11-9, getting 10 hits to Pittsburgh's 17. The Pirates manager, Billy Meyer, protested the game and his protest probably will stand. Howard Ford scored his first win since June 21 in hurling Cincinnati Reds to a 6-1 triumph over Philadelphia Phillies.

Printed and published for the proprietors by W. J. JAMES KEATES, Printer, Hong Kong.

English football fans had almost a full Saturday programme today as 29 English league games were played. Mid-week matches must not start before 6 p.m. to avoid disruption of work.

Attendances were good everywhere, the top being the 65,000 at the Newcastle United-Chelsea game. Newcastle won promotion from the second to the first division of the football league at the end of the 1947-48 season and this was the team's first home game in the new season which began last Saturday.

FRENCH WIN AT SALISBURY

London, August 25.
The French colt, Royal Drake, second favourite for the St. Leger, won the Manton Stakes run over the St. Leger distance of one mile and three-quarters at Salisbury today.

There was nothing particularly impressive about the manner of his success.

Starting at 9 to 4 on, and ridden by Gordon Richards, he won by one and a half lengths from his French-bred stable companion, Vic Day, with Julian a further three lengths away, third of seven runners.

Richards took Royal Drake to front three furlongs from home but had to keep him going to hold off the challenge of Vic Day, who was well supported at 5 to 2.—Reuter.

GERMAN EX-SERVICE LEAGUE BANNED
Hamburg, August 25.
The Hamburg Military Government has banned the formation of an Ex-Servicemen's League by a "small group of former German militarists."

Colonel August Van Nes, a member of the organization's Foundation Committee, told Reuters: "All we wish to do is to organize all former soldiers and sailors irrespective of rank, so in political, political and religious convictions who have done their duty in the war as honest men."

He said the organization had two principal aims:

- 1.—"The formation of a body able to co-operate with all servicemen in all democratic countries."
- 2.—"The formation of an organization for mutual help on the basis of sound moral principles."

The announcement banning the League said that, "although the statutes and regulations appear to be comparatively innocuous, the Military Government, being aware of the true nature of the organization, are informing the sponsors that permission will, on no account, be granted for the formal registration of such an association."—Reuter.

Classic Knock
Through a succession of delightful leg glances and on drives Brown obtained the last 26 runs required for his eighth century of the tour in only 15 minutes after lunch. He took 13 in one over from Bailey, including three boundaries, and reached 100 out of 180 in two hours 10 minutes.

After making 120 out of 221 in two hours and a half, Brown fell to a fine catch by Bailey at backward short leg. He hit a five and 15 fours in a classic innings. He and Bradman added 77 in 40 minutes after lunch.

Bradman reached his ninth century of the tour with a four off Bailey, who came on with the new ball. He had batted for two and a half hours and hit 11 fours and was given a great ovation.

Bradman and Hassett scored steadily to bring the score to 304 for two men, with Bradman 125 not out and Hassett 35 not out.

Aussies' Huge Score Against The Gents

Lords, August 25.
The Australians lost three wickets in scoring 478 runs against the Gentlemen of England on the opening day of their three-day match here, both Don Bradman and Lindsay Hassett scoring centuries.

Bradman was out for 150, while Hassett was still at the wickets with 119 to his credit when stumps were drawn.

A crowd of over 12,000 watched the early stages of the match despite the threatening weather and on an easy paced wicket they saw runs come freely with several boundaries.

The first Australian wicket fell at 40 as the result of a fine catch by Weeller, Glamorgan's captain, who only yesterday emphasised the value of fielding in Glamorgan's success. This brought in Bradman. He was soon off the mark and quickly hit 18 runs, which gave him 2,000 runs for the fourth time on tour.

Then he and Brown dealt with all bowling confidently and 50 was on the board after 45 minutes. Bradman's own 50 took only 70 minutes, and just afterwards there was a brief stoppage for rain. Play was soon resumed and 104 runs were on the board when lunch was taken.

Eight Bowlers
After reaching 150 Bradman threw away his wicket when hitting out recklessly. He hit 19 fours.

More punishment came to the Gentlemen's attack during the fourth wicket stand between Hassett and Miller, the third century partnership in succession.

R.V.W. Robins tried eight bowlers and Edrich resorted to slow off-breaks, but there was little relief.

The unbroken partnership added 147 in the last 100 minutes. Hassett's 100 not out took him three hours and a quarter and contained 12 fours.

Hassett's 200
Lords, August 26.
Don Bradman decided to bat when play was resumed today. The tourists had carried their overnight score to 610 for five by the luncheon interval. Lindsay Hassett was then 200 not out.

It was only then that Bradman applied the pressure. The reason for his decision to bat on this morning was, not easy to guess as the Gentlemen could not have hoped to make the Australians bat a second time in the match. Play opened with a thrill for the 45,000 spectators when Bradman, with the new ball, had Miller caught at the fourth bell of the day.

COUNTY CRICKET

YORKSHIRE'S FIGHT FOR SECOND PLACE

London, August 25.
While the Welsh national flag flew over all Cardiff civic buildings today in honour of Glamorgan, new County cricket champions, other sides were engaged in the struggle for runners up place.

A. B. Sellers, captaining Yorkshire, won the toss at Bournemouth and sent Hampshire in to bat after rain had delayed play till noon.

His policy was amply justified when Hampshire were skittled out for 71. The biggest factor in this success was the slow spinner, E. Robinson, who took six for 25, including an after lunch spell of five wickets for nine runs in eight overs.

John Wardle got four for 20. When Yorkshire went in, however, they also found runs hard to get and were all out cheaply. C. Knott, the Hampshire right arm off spin bowler, reaping a harvest of six for 60.

Hants, in again, lost five for 80 by the close of play. Surrey, also candidates for runners-up honours, found, lowly placed Northamptonshire, rich arm medium paced bowler Webster in form and he took four for 60.

With four wickets to fall, Northants needed 59 runs for first innings points at the close. Close of play scores:
At Dover: Nottinghamshire 300 for 8 (Sims 121 not out, Keeton 58) against Sussex.
At Clifton: Worcestershire 300 (E. Cooper 107, Outshoorn 90, Preston 6 for 85); Essex 51 for one.

At Gloucester: Combined Services 223 (Cook 4 for 78); Gloucestershire 100 for one (Emmett 55, Wilcox 51 not out).
At Manchester: Kent 185 (Evans 60); Lancashire 53 for 2.
At Leicester: Leicestershire 207 (Riddington 59, Hollies 4 for 23); Warwickshire 61 for no wicket.
At Kennington Oval: Surrey 178 (Webster 4 for 60); Northamptonshire 120 for 6.
At Bournemouth: Hampshire 71 (Robinson 4 for 25, Wardle 4 for 20) and 80 for 5; Yorkshire 135 (Watson 50, Knott 6 for 60).—Reuter.

DAVIS CUP PLAYERS DEFEATED
Brookline, Massachusetts, August 25.
Two Davis Cup pairs were eliminated in the third round of the men's event when the American national tennis doubles championships were continued here today.

Adrian Quist and Bill Sidwell, Australia, and Jiroslav Drobny and Vladimir Cernik, Czechoslovakia, were both beaten by United States combinations.

Budge Patty and Sydney Wood, USA, beat Quist and Sidwell, 4-6, 6-4, 6-1, 6-4, while Tom Brown and Irving Dorfman, USA, defeated Drobny and Cernik, 7-5, 4-6, 8-7, 6-3.

Mrs. Magda Ruzar, Rumania, won her second round match in the women's singles invitation tournament, held in conjunction with the National Doubles championships, when she beat Mrs. Cissy Madsen, South Africa, 6-1, 6-0.—Reuter.

Basis Of Trade With Germany
Geneva, August 25.
Britain and France today expressed qualified approval of a United States proposal that the main trading nations of the world grouped in the Geneva Tariffs and Trade Agreement should extend the most favoured nation treatment to Western Germany.

The British delegate, Mr. R. J. Shackle, said that his Government approved the substance of the American proposal as far as Germany was concerned, but doubted whether a general grant of most favoured nation treatment should be decided by the 22 nations.

He added that Britain last month had exchanged with United States notes which, in effect, meant that Britain was according most favoured nation treatment to Bizania.—Reuter.

KWANGTUNG TO RECEIVE TRAWLERS
Canton, August 24.
Kwangtung may in the near future receive a large quantity of fishing equipment including trawlers, it is reported here.

It is understood that negotiations with this end in view have been going on in Nanking between Dr. Hsieh Wen-lung, Kwangtung's Commissioner of Reconstruction, and the competent authorities. Reports say that Dr. Hsieh, who is due back shortly, has been seeking an adequate supply of surplus American fishing equipment for Kwangtung to assist in post-war rehabilitation schemes.—Reuter.

BRITISH CAR EXPORTS
London, August 24.
British shipped more than 2,700 motor cars to the United States in July, bringing in more than US$9,000,000, the Motor Industry of Great Britain announced today.

Total British car exports for July to all countries were 20,000, valued at nearly $5,000,000.—Associated Press.

Yugoslav Sour Grapes

Belgrade, August 25.
The Yugoslav team which competed at the London Olympic Games alleged in a statement today that many results at the Games had been "achieved by underground methods."

"During the competition one could often notice individual results were achieved by earlier agreement or other underground methods which had nothing to do with the statement said.—Reuter.

MOSLEY HENCHMAN ATTACKED

London, August 26.
Mr. Jeffrey Hamm, deputy leader of Sir Oswald Mosley's Union Movement, was detained in hospital today with head injuries and severe razor cuts.

A group of unidentified men rushed him during a speech in East London last night. Mr. Hamm was knocked unconscious by a brick and slashed by razors. Five of his attackers were arrested.

A Mosley sympathiser who witnessed the incident said "Jeffrey was hit on the head with a brick and was cut with razors. He fell down and his wife took off her blouse to try to stop the blood."—United Press.

ACQUITTED

Hamburg, August 25.
A British war crimes court here today acquitted General Valentin Festerstein, the Austrian commander of the 51st German Army Corps under Marshal Rommel, and two of his staff.

They had been charged with carrying out Hitler's notorious Commando order to annihilate all special detachments sent to Germany by the Allies, and with responsibility for the killing of Captain R. Duden and an unknown sergeant, members of the British 2nd Special Air Service Regiment, in Pozzano di Magra, Italy, in September, 1943.—Reuter.

I enjoy them best of all

"They're such a luxury. I never knew a cigarette so cool and yet so full of natural flavour."

"As it happens, they're the biggest discovery in smoking pleasure made in the past fifty years."

"The filter tip is a great discovery. It stops all those little bits of loose tobacco."

"Much more than that, it traps any harshness produced by burning. That's why they're so marvellously smooth."
